

SPECIAL CALL FOR ART: What does Hispanic Heritage mean to you?
Exhibition Request Application Deadline is Friday, September 18 by 5:00 p.m.

Hispanic Heritage Month is September 15 to October 15.

Ignacio Community Library was selected to receive a competitive Latino Americans: 500 Years of History grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) and the American Library Association (ALA). As one of the grant recipients selected from across the country, ICL will host public screenings, discussions, lectures, art exhibitions and more. Stay tuned for more details!

In the meantime, the Ignacio Community Library invites artists from the Four Corners area to submit artwork that expresses Hispanic Heritage. The special exhibit will be showcased October through December. The purpose of this exhibit is to enhance awareness and pride in our community's Latino Heritage and history. This exhibit is open to all local artists of all ages, amateur or professional.

Please read our Art Policy, as all guidelines still apply to this special exhibit. A copy of the Art Exhibition Policy can be picked in the library or is available to download from our website.

All artwork must be original by the submitting artist. Work from all media and styles will be considered. Each artist may list up to six pieces on the Art Exhibition Request Form.

- a. Wall art must be ready to hang without difficulty; must have a wire or stable support structure attached to the back. No exceptions.
- b. Every effort will be made accommodate three-dimensional art pieces in a secure area. 3-D art pieces must not exceed 12"h x 24"w x 24"d.
- c. Textiles will be considered if they can be displayed securely in an existing display area.

Art exhibits in the library are a way to enhance and increase community appreciation of the arts. We hope this exhibit will provide an important opportunity to celebrate Hispanic Heritage.

Application Deadline is Friday, September 18 by 5:00 p.m.
